

Upon completion of the MM in Instrumental Performance, students will be able to:

- Develop listening skills and technical proficiency to perform at the highest possible level of artistry.
- Analyze music as a means of enhancing performance skills and developing teaching competency.
- Demonstrate instructional and performance skills in individual and group settings.
- Interpret a common body of music literature as appropriate for their performance medium.
- Demonstrate the ability to use music performance for engagement outside of the University.