

Upon completion of the MM in piano performance, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate a high level of technical proficiency and acquire the ability to perform as soloists and in chamber settings.
- Analyze music according to stylistic periods, highlighting aspects that form the core of each such as form, harmonies, phrase structure, dynamic and sound control, etc.
- Demonstrate basic teaching skills and repertoire knowledge from beginners to advanced levels.
- Communicate with audiences through performances and verbal engagement.
- Present oneself as an ambassador of music who can perform, teach, and share music through multiple channels.