

Upon completion of the MM in vocal performance, students will be able to:

- Perform as soloists and ensemble musicians with technical proficiency, versatility, and functionality.
- Analyze musical literature in order to enhance and contextualize their performance.
- Articulate languages with fluency of transcription in the International Phonetic Alphabet and demonstrate clarity of diction and articulation.
- Interpret song and opera texts through translation and text analysis.
- Engage audiences through performance using thoughtful programming.